

REMOVING THE BARRIERS TO GROWTH

The difference in value between a company which is process driven compared to one which continues to be 'hands on' managed by the principals, is generally regarded as DOUBLE. The issue is that most company leaders have no time to focus on how to run their business better, because they are constantly operating in it.

CCG addresses these issues head on in a pragmatic and cost-effective way to achieve massive business improvements for its customers using a new and unique approach.

- We are not financial engineers
- We are not sales and marketing consultants
- We are not personal counsellors,
(But we can facilitate involvement of these specialists if required).
- We don't replace management
- We are not interim managers
- We are not non-executive directors
- We are not consultants in the traditional sense

SO WHAT ARE WE?

CCG coaches companies to achieve their goals.

Coaching is now really coming into its own. It is being recognised by the world's experts as a key method for improving performance in the workplace. As Sir Steve Redgrave (left), pointed out at the Institute of Directors Centenary Convention in 2003, coaching is taken for granted in the sporting world. Now it is beginning to achieve the same recognition in business circles.

Many teams and individuals have a coach to provide motivation, enhance technical skill and improve performance. The coach enables the team to perform better as a whole, and the same is true in business. Many business leaders and leading politicians employ coaches in order to maximise their performance.

But it's not just that! We can all achieve more with a coach because a coach will help us to see the wood for the trees; focus on the priorities; and they tell it as it is.

Coaching needs differ at various stages of an athlete's development, and it's just the same with a company's growth:

Stage	Business Coaching
Starting out	Some people have never played their chosen sport before and need help with the basics It's the same in business: many people know their industry but don't know how to run a company
Experienced	Some have been involved in their sport for years. They know what they are capable of and need to focus on setting stretching goals and strategies to achieve them. The most common questions we get from business leaders are: how do I grow my business faster; and how can I improve my lifestyle balance?
Advanced	Senior athletes, politicians and company directors all know their professions inside out. They need a coach to tell it like it is and help them see the wood for the trees.

SO WHAT CAN WE DO FOR YOU?

SUCCESS

Success is not the exclusive right of large organisations. After all - most successful large businesses started life as small ones. So what is the secret of their success and what separates successful companies from the many that fail achieve their goals?

YOU CAN'T DO IT ON YOUR OWN

These days there is so much administration, so much new legislation, so much competition. You simply can't do everything, and it can be a lonely and soul-destroying life proving that over and over again.

HELPING BUSINESSES TO SUCCEED

CCG Group provides a service, which is geared to all sizes and shapes of companies. We employ our own unique methodology, delivered by local associates who have achieved their own business success and have the right aptitude for assisting others to achieve their goals. Our methodology has been developed from the experience of directors and managers of both large and small successful companies, in many different industries across the world, and proven to work over and over again.

COMPANIES NEED HELP NOW MORE THAN EVER

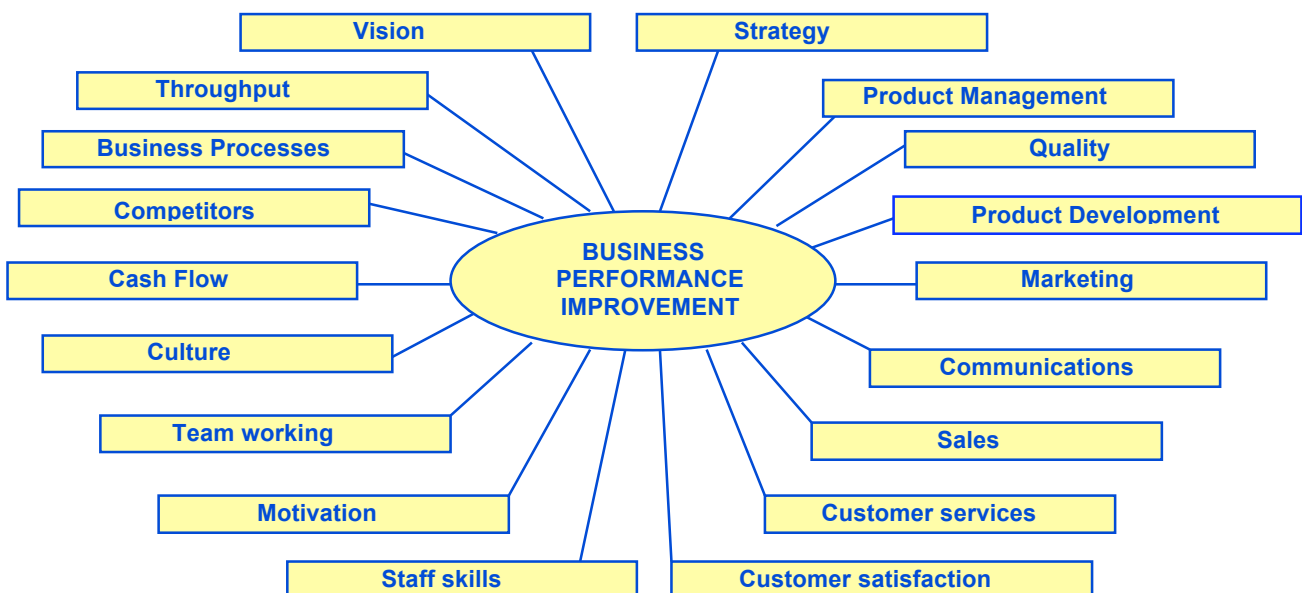

What issues do most companies face at some time?

- Cash flow
- Looking to improve profits
- Wanting to expand
- Failing to achieve targets

- Product not selling well
- Competition giving problems
- Everyone is working too many hours
- Too much dependency on you and the senior team.

These are the issues that are directly addressed by the CCG process. Our objective for you is business and profitability growth, and lifestyle balance.

BUSINESS PERFORMANCE IMPROVEMENT IS ABOUT GETTING ALL THE COMPANY ACTIVITIES SYNCHRONISED:

“IF YOU HAVE CLEAR TARGETS THEN YOU HAVE A 100% BETTER CHANCE OF MEETING OR EXCEEDING THEM.”

The CCG approach is geared to companies of all sizes, so that it is affordable to all. The approach involves working with the company on the specific issues which matter. So how does this work?

When you become a client of CCG the diagram on the next page will give you an idea of how we approach the process of working with you.

BUSINESS PERFORMANCE IMPROVEMENT PROGRAMME

Stage	Approach
Initial Discussions	The purpose of these discussions is to get to know each other's requirements and way of working. They are free of charge.
Fact Finder	There is a prescriptive process for us to gather all the relevant information about your business.
Strategy Into Action	This is the key starting point in establishing a new and integrated plan of action to achieve your goals. We work with you and your top team to make sure everyone is in tune.
Monthly Mentoring and Coaching	The monthly process of working with you to "make it happen" takes place. Your CCG associate will work with you to make sure that regular progress is made.
Specific Requirements	Where there are specific requirements which become evident, some of these can be fulfilled by your CCG associate from our library of self help programmes; others will need the involvement of a specialist. CCG has relationships with a wide range of specialist service companies that can address these specific needs.

The CCG approach combines:

- Arms length objectivity, with
- A prescriptive methodology, and
- Associates with the experience of having 'done it' before.

Our associates have all performed successfully in business themselves. They include successful entrepreneurs, board directors of multi-nationals, senior management of national companies. They have all demonstrated an aptitude for coaching companies to business improvement.

Statistics show that one hundred per cent of company owners recognise that there are areas of their business, which can be improved. Some are looking for business growth, some are looking for reduced time on the job, while others have more specific issues.

Whatever your requirements, CCG can help you address them and remove the barriers to further growth.
